

XMSF TECHNICAL CHALLENGES WORKSHOP

AGENDA

Monday, 19 August 2002

0815—Welcome. Don Brutzman, Mark Pullen, Katherine Morse, Mike Zyda

- Workshop goals, agenda and outcomes
- MOVES Open House.

0830—XMSF and technical workshop overview.

- Motivation, milestones and goal outcomes
- White paper review and look-ahead
- Challenges: can we do all modeling and simulation over Web?

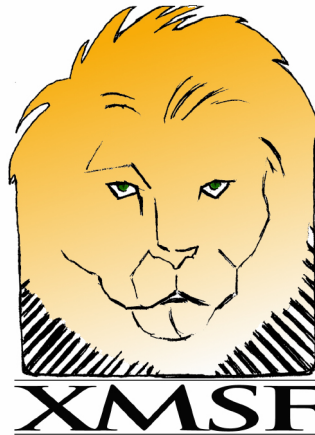

0930—Workshop tasks: triage consensus on the XMSF challenges

- where do we agree?
- where do we disagree?
- what areas most deserve immediate work?
- Review whitepaper list of overarching issues for all groups
- Review names in each group

1000—Coffee/snack break at auditorium

1030—Work groups meet:

- Web/XML, room Root 200C. Chairman Don Brutzman, assistants Curt Blais, Andrzej Kapolka
- Networking, room Spangel 254. Chairman Mark Pullen, assistants Dave Laflam, Don McGregor

- Modeling & Simulation, Chairman Katherine Morse, assistants Simon Goerger, Joerg Wellbrink. Rapid (10 min) point-paper briefings by participants

1200—Lunch on the quad-range, pay your own way

1300—Workgroups

1500—Coffee/snack break at auditorium

1530—Working groups determine consensus on triage questions

1700 Plenary progress quicklook: 5 minutes per group. Determine tasks for evening, morning sessions

1730—Break

1900—Dinner, El Palomar Monterey, pay your own way. Private room available for continued discussions

Tuesday, 20 August 2002

0815—Working groups resume and complete contributions

1000—Coffee/snack break at auditorium

1030—Plenary results session: 20-minute group reports

1130—Final discussion:

- Consensus conclusions, disagreements, go-forward steps
- Participant updates to point papers and reading references
- XMSF Strategic Opportunities Symposium, Friday 6 SEP, GMU

1200—Workshop complete. Lunch on the quad, pay your own way

1300—MOVES Open House

For further information, see MovesInstitute.org/xmsf